MEP/N2601: Plan and organize for facilitation of a training program

Description

This unit is about planning before starting a training program to ensure that it is conducted smoothly, meets the learning objectives for the program and is in alignment to the program guidelines.

Scope

The scope covers the following :

- Interpret learning environment and delivery requirements
- Modify session plans and resources for delivery
- Organize training environment

Elements and Performance Criteria

Interpret learning environment and delivery requirements

To be competent, the user/individual on the job must be able to:

- PC1. obtain training documentation from authorized source with respect to mode of training virtual (e-learning, app-based, and blended) and on-site classes
- PC2. access, read, and interpret the training documentation to determine delivery requirements from authorised source (Training documentation: Trainers guide, Occupational standards, and Key Learning Outcomes (KLOs), Curriculum, Training schedule)
- PC3. provide recommendation for selection of candidates for training as per the learning objectives of the program
- PC4. obtain details of the learners from authorised sources
- PC5. examine learner profiles to identify group and individual learner needs, and relevant learner characteristics
- PC6. identify training environment requirements w.r.t. virtual (e-learning, app-based, and blended) and on-site classes (like venue, tools, equipment, materials, space, layout and seating arrangements, HVAC, stationery, etc.)
- PC7. identify constraints impacting training delivery and relevant risks and applicable solutions

Modify session plans and resources for delivery

To be competent, the user/individual on the job must be able to:

- PC8. evaluate specific needs of individual learners and requisite resources
- PC9. modify existing session plans received in line with special learner needs, time and environment constraints, availability of materials, etc.
- PC10. contextualise learning materials to meet the needs of the specific learner group

Organise training environment

To be competent, the user/individual on the job must be able to:

- PC11. ensure availability of adequate training materials, facility, technology, tools and equipment in time for delivery of learning sessions
- PC12. organise training materials and equipment for easy access and use when required during the course of the training

Qualification Pack

- PC13. ensure the venue of training for off-line mode and training environment in on-line mode is conducive to learning and in line with professional guidelines including those mentioned in the training documentation
- PC14. ensure timely availability of support services as per requirement by coordinating with training coordinator (Support services: Pantry service, logistic service, housekeeping and maintenance, internet services, training platform and IT support)
- PC15. ensure training area is risk free and equipped with necessary health and safety resources like fire extinguishers, safety signage, clean toilets, dry flooring, security arrangements, etc.
- PC16. confirm overall delivery arrangements

Knowledge and Understanding (KU)

The individual on the job needs to know and understand:

- KU1. training organisations system policies and procedures such as candidate selection, rationale and purpose of competency-based assessment, costs/ resourcing
- KU2. organizational record-management systems with respect to training and reporting requirements
- KU3. work area inspection procedures and practices
- KU4. procedures for the recording, reporting and maintenance of workplace equipment
- KU5. the learner group profile, including characteristics and needs of individual learners in the group
- KU6. setting up training facilities, training equipment and tools (Training facilities, training equipment and tools: eg. room/space appropriate to the style of delivery, data projector and laptop/computer and speakers, projection screen, flip charts with markers, whiteboard and whiteboard markers, trainer manual, learner handbook/workbook and any other learning materials and resources, training delivery plan, other equipment specified in session plan)
- KU7. competency based curriculum documents and learning materials
- KU8. assessment and risk control measures relating to the facilitation of group-based learning
- KU9. policies and procedures relevant to the learning environment
- KU10. how to create and modify session plan
- KU11. prescribed and standard session plan template
- KU12. mode of training like on-line, hybrid or blended and on-site
- KU13. synchronous and asynchronous training tools
- KU14. main stages of the training cycle in virtual (e-learning, app-based, & blended) and on-site classes
- KU15. methods of giving feedback and mentoring during on-line training

Generic Skills (GS)

User/individual on the job needs to know how to:

- GS1. GS1. write messages, notes and short descriptive text with reasonable accuracy
- GS2. GS2. read and extract relevant information from documentation including purpose, nature of document, etc.

Qualification Pack

- GS3. GS3. communicate effectively with co-workers and clients

- PC11. monitor, and document, learner progress to ensure outcomes are being achieved, and individual learner needs are being met

- PC12. share feedback with learners on a regular basis to keep them updated on their progress and areas that require more focus
- PC13. make adjustments to the delivery sessions to reflect specific needs and circumstances
- PC14. provide additional assistance to individual learners as required to achieve session outcomes
- PC15. maintain and store learner records according to organisational requirements

Undertake post training activities

To be competent, the user/individual on the job must be able to:

- PC16. securing equipment and tools in safe places in accordance with procedures
- PC17. ensure that training equipment and tools are used and left in good condition
- PC18. complete learner records accurately and in the required timeframes

Knowledge and Understanding (KU)

The individual on the job needs to know and understand:

- KU1. Training Organisations system policies and procedures such as: a. candidate selection b. rationale and purpose of competency-based assessment c. costs/resourcing
- KU2. organizational record-management systems and reporting requirements
- KU3. Health Safety and Environment (HSE) issues relating to delivery of competency based training
- KU4. work area inspection procedures and practices
- KU5. waste and dangerous materials disposal procedures and practices
- KU6. procedures for the recording, reporting and maintenance of workplace equipment
- KU7. principles of adult learning and how to apply them in training delivery: a). training needs to be learner-centred to engage learners, b). adults have a need to be self-directing and decide for themselves what they want to learn, c). adults have a range of life experience, so connecting learning to experience is meaningful, d). adults have a need to know why they are learning something, e). the learning process needs to support increasing learner independence, f). emphasis on experiential and participative learning. g) use of modelling. the learning process should reflect individual circumstances
- KU8. factors that affect learning such as: a. physical e.g. temperature, health, personal concerns b. social, emotional e.g. attitude, motivation, behaviour, cognitive, environmental
- KU9. techniques to create and maintain a positive learning environment such as: a). encouraging learner participation, b). using interactive learning approaches to transfer skills and knowledge to learners, c). using presentation skills to convey understanding of key concepts and central ideas, d). being aware of non-verbal and verbal communication of participants, e). using learning resources to enhance the learning experience for all learners, f). delivering at appropriate pace, g). ensuring and encouraging two-way communication including provide opportunities for learners to seek clarification on central ideas and concepts, and adjust the presentation to meet participant needs and preferences, h). summarising key concepts and ideas at strategic points to facilitate learner understanding, i). monitoring learner progress with tasks and learning activities based on session plan. n. measuring the achievement of learning outcomes by formative assessment, j). using the diversity of the group as a resource to support learning, k). using facilitation skills to ensure effective participation and group management
- KU10. ways to implement program delivery based on session delivery plans and facilitation guides

- KU11. • commonly used training delivery methods, processes and facilitation techniques appropriate to face-to-face group delivery (Training methods: lecture, group discussion & presentation, group activities, role-plays, demonstration and practice, field trips, case-studies, self-study)
• (Training processes: connecting to previous learning, delivering information in a step by step fashion, explanation with examples, two-way interaction, step by step demonstration, guided learner practice and recap/consolidation to optimise learner experiences)
• (Basic facilitation techniques: active listening, questioning, brainstorming, setting ground rules, encouraging participation, not making anyone wrong, use existing knowledge in the group effectively)
- KU12. • various ways to handle inappropriate behaviour in a professional manner (Inappropriate behaviours: Abusing; violence; harassment; disruption of session; pilfering; intentional mishandling of equipment and materials; habitual absenteeism, etc.)
• Various ways to handle: Set ground rules at the beginning of the session and implement strictly, identifying the reason for inappropriate behaviour and suggesting a more appropriate method of expressing discontent; prepare and follow escalation matrix for reporting inappropriate behaviour; discuss consequences of inappropriate behaviour to self and others; counselling; detention/suspension/rustication in accordance with the rules of the organisation/institution, etc.
- KU13. importance of monitoring and documenting learning progress of the learners and providing them feedback
- KU14. importance of ensuring safety, hygiene, tidiness before, during and after the sessions
- KU15. importance of completing learner records accurately and processing within required timeframes

Generic Skills (GS)

User/individual on the job needs to know how to:

- GS1. write factual and quantitative information correctly
- GS2. read and extract relevant information from documentation including purpose, nature of document, etc.

MEP/N2618: Facilitate learning through on-the-job or in a simulated training

Description

This unit deals with planning for teaching work skills on-the-job or in a simulated work environment. It involves all the preparation required like resources and equipment in the right quantity, their arrangements and other facilities required like demonstrator or instructor.

Scope

The scope covers the following :

- Prepare for on-the-job training or simulated training
- Carry out on-the-job or simulated training

Prepare for on-the-job training or simulated training

To be competent, the user/individual on the job must be able to:

- PC1. obtain information of batch size, schedule of training, documentation and relevant materials from authorised sources
- PC2. identify characteristics of audience to customize demonstration as per their needs
- PC3. estimate equipment, materials and resources required to carry out demonstration and practice of work skills
- PC4. organize for necessary and adequate equipment, materials and resources required
- PC5. ensure that all equipment, materials and resources are ready to use and placed in a safe and learner friendly manner
- PC6. notify learners of details regarding the implementation of the learning program and/or delivery plan

Carry out on-the-job or simulated training

To be competent, the user/individual on the job must be able to:

- PC7. share with the learners clearly, the acceptable standards of knowledge and performance to become competent
- PC8. ensure that all learners have access to necessary equipment and materials for practicing on and learning the work skills
- PC9. demonstrate each step in the task or procedure at a pace and manner that is easy for learners to follow
- PC10. clarify queries and provide feedback on progress systematically
- PC11. explain unfamiliar terms and jargons as and when they are used so that the learners can understand easily
- PC12. state the precautions to be taken while performing the various steps
- PC13. provide opportunity for each learner to practice each step in the task or procedure required to be learnt immediately after the demonstration if possible

Qualification Pack

- PC14. observe learner performance and evaluate as per performance criteria
- PC15. record and share feedback with the learners to support their learning as well as with management as per protocol
- PC16. carry out post-training activities like proper storage of equipment and maintenance of records

The individual on the job needs to know and understand:

- KU1. difference between on-the-job and simulation training
- KU2. areas where only simulation training is possible
- KU3. required basic competencies in students to start on-the-job training
- KU4. work area inspection procedures and practices
- KU5. procedures for the recording, reporting and maintenance of workplace equipment
- KU6. types of learning that are best achieved and supported through demonstrations
- KU7. training documentation to determine acceptable standards of knowledge and performance required from the learners
- KU8. how to structure demonstrations and practice sessions
- KU9. which factors are likely to prevent learning during demonstration and practice sessions and how to overcome them
- KU10. the sources and availability of relevant equipment, materials and physical and learning resources and learning materials
- KU11. various best practices for effectively facilitating learning of work skills through on-the-job or simulations

Generic Skills (GS)

User/individual on the job needs to know how to:

MEP/N2604: Undertake assessment of competence as per required standards

Description

This unit deals in detail with the preparation for undertaking assessment of competence and conduct of assessments which also includes post-assessment activities like recording and forwarding of results.

Scope

The scope covers the following :

- Prepare for undertaking assessment of competence
- Conduct assessment of competence

Elements and Performance Criteria

Prepare for undertaking assessment of competence as per standards

To be competent, the user/individual on the job must be able to:

- PC1. schedule the assessments in between the training schedule as per requirement of the training plan
- PC2. access and interpret units of competency that are to be used as benchmarks for assessment
- PC3. prepare assessment tools to match the competency being evaluated and the parameters indicated in the checklist
- PC4. ensure availability of necessary and adequate tools, equipment and materials for conducting assessment as per no. of candidates
- PC5. ensure a safe and secure environment for the assessment to take place
- PC6. provide instructions prior to assessment on the conduct of the assessment and assessment parameters

Conduct assessment of competence

To be competent, the user/individual on the job must be able to:

- PC7. use assessment tools for various purposes: evaluate level of competence; evaluate learning retention; monitor learner progress against program and session objectives; identify learner learning needs against required curriculum; provide feedback to learners on progress; create development plan for further learning; assess learning styles; assess learner soft skills
- PC8. gather evidence of performance applying the principles of assessment and rules of evidence
- PC9. evaluate the collected evidence to check whether it reflects the evidence required to demonstrate competence
- PC10. validate inferences made and finalize the results of the assessment
- PC11. record assessment decision whether competency mentioned in assessment criteria has been achieved
- PC12. identify level of competence achieved as per assessment criteria as well as learning gaps
- PC13. provide clear and constructive feedback to the candidate regarding the assessment decision, and clearly document follow-up, if required

Qualification Pack

- PC14. complete learner assessment records accurately and submit or process as required in the required timeframes
- PC15. use technology as applicable while conducting assessment activities (such as video evidence of skills/performance, recording of oral evidence, computer-based/on-line testing; etc.)
- PC16. check and authenticate the video recordings and other evidences (for example, to see if there are no shortcomings), and retake the recording and evidences as applicable
- PC17. document the results on paper templates as well as online forms and templates as prescribed accurately
- PC18. complete candidate records accurately and process in the required time frame
- PC19. secure, label and pack the evidences accurately as per standard procedures adopted by training organisation

The individual on the job needs to know and understand:

- KU1. Training Organisations system, policies and procedures such as: a. candidate selection, b. rationale and purpose of competency-based assessment, c. costs/resourcing
- KU2. organizational record-management systems and reporting requirements
- KU3. Health Safety and Environment (HSE) issues relating to delivery of competency based training
- KU4. work area inspection procedures and practices
- KU5. waste and dangerous materials disposal procedures and practices
- KU6. procedures for the recording, reporting and maintenance of workplace equipment
- KU7. Purpose of formative assessment and when is undertaken
- KU8. how competency based assessment differs from other types of assessment
- KU9. competency standards as the basis of qualifications
- KU10. structure and application of competency standards
- KU11. the principles of assessment and how they are applied
- KU12. the distinction between assessment tools and assessment instruments
- KU13. the rules of evidence and how they are applied

Assessment Guidelines and Assessment Weightage

Assessment Guidelines

1. Criteria for assessment for each Qualification Pack will be created by the Sector Skill Council. Each Element/ Performance Criteria (PC) will be assigned marks proportional to its importance in NOS. SSC will also lay down proportion of marks for Theory and Skills Practical for each Element/ PC.
2. The assessment for the theory part will be based on knowledge bank of questions created by the SSC.
3. Assessment will be conducted for all compulsory NOS, and where applicable, on the selected elective/option NOS/set of NOS.
4. Individual assessment agencies will create unique question papers for theory part for each candidate at each examination/training center (as per assessment criteria below).
5. Individual assessment agencies will create unique evaluations for skill practical for every student at each examination/ training center based on these criteria.
6. To pass the Qualification Pack assessment, every trainee should score the Recommended Pass % aggregate for the QP.
7. In case of unsuccessful completion, the trainee may seek reassessment on the Qualification Pack.
