MEP/N2605: Evaluate trainers and training programs and provide recommendations for improving training effectiveness

Description

This unit lists the outcomes, performance criteria, knowledge, understanding and skills required for evaluating training and training programs to recommend ways to improve training effectiveness.

Scope

The scope covers the following :

- Evaluate performance of trainers on the job
- Evaluate effectiveness of training program

Elements and Performance Criteria

Evaluate performance of trainers on the job

To be competent, the user/individual on the job must be able to:

- PC1. obtain the competencies, occupational standards and performance criteria for trainers from authorized source
- PC2. extract relevant information from the training calendar in advance, of trainers whose performance is to be evaluated
- PC3. create and share trainer performance observation schedule with administration and respective trainers in advance
- PC4. observe a training session in progress and gather evidence of achievement of occupational standard as well as evidence of non-achievement of performance standard as the case may be
- PC5. validate the observations and evidence of achievement of occupational standards by discussing with the trainer after training session
- PC6. analyse data pertaining to various trainer performance indicators to identify performance level of the trainers (Trainer Performance indicators: Feedback from students; pass percentage of students; supervisor feedback)
- PC7. interview the trainers and obtain information about the problems they face
- PC8. identify areas of development for trainers based on information received from on-the-job evaluation against occupational standards, performance indicators and self-assessment
- PC9. document results of trainer performance evaluation in prescribed format of the training organisation
- PC10. provide feedback to the respective trainers and resolve their queries regarding the same

Evaluate effectiveness of training program

To be competent, the user/individual on the job must be able to:

- PC11. assess the effectiveness of the training program in virtual and on-site training

Qualification Pack

- PC12. establish parameters that are important to ensure training effectiveness of training program (Possible parameters: Student experience, student assessment pass percentage; time taken for completion of training; training design and process adherence; Health and Safety standards; Productivity of Trainer and training centre staff; adherence to budgets; compliance to scheme or Government norms and quality standards; alignment to industry/employability requirements; etc.)
- PC13. identify data and information required and access sources of information (Possible sources of information: student feedback forms; formative and summative assessment results' documentation; assessor feedback; training program documentation such as lesson plans, curriculum, facilitator guide, participant handbook, presentations; training session audit; centre audit; interviews with training centre staff; Government norms and scheme norms; placement records etc.)
- PC14. collect data and information, and store in compliance with the record keeping and privacy policies and procedures of the organisation
- PC15. identify and record potentially useful information that is not identified in the evaluation plan
- PC16. analyse the data and information to identify the effectiveness of the training program as per the parameters selected
- PC17. cross-check findings where possible by comparing with the results from different evaluation sources
- PC18. develop conclusions about the effectiveness and efficiency of the training program, as per the evaluation parameters selected
- PC19. compare data and information with earlier data and information for same parameters and identify trends
- PC20. document areas of training program that are satisfactory and those requiring improvement
- PC21. identify factors affecting performance and suggest possible enhancements or alternatives to the training program
- PC22. document recommendations to stakeholders on areas of possible improvement in the prescribed format
- PC23. present the recommendations to stakeholders

Knowledge and Understanding (KU)

The individual on the job needs to know and understand:

- KU1. training Organisations system policies and procedures such as: a). candidate selection, b). rationale and purpose of competency-based assessment, c). costs/resourcing
- KU2. organizational record-management systems and reporting requirements
- KU3. procedures for the recording, reporting and maintenance of workplace equipment
- KU4. ways to evaluate training and identify training needs
- KU5. trainer competencies, occupational standards and performance criteria
- KU6. possible sources of information for identifying trainer training requirements (e.g.: student feedback forms; formative and summative assessment results documentation; assessor feedback; training program documentation such as lesson plans, curriculum, Facilitator guide, participant handbook, presentations; training session audit; centre audit; interview with training centre staff; Government norms and scheme norms; placement records; interviews with potential and actual employers of students from the centre; etc.)

Qualification Pack

- KU7. parameters that are important to ensure training effectiveness of training program (Possible parameters: Student experience, student assessment pass percentage; time taken for completion of training; training design and process adherence; Health and Safety standards; Productivity of Trainer and training centre staff; adherence to budgets; compliance to scheme or Government norms and quality standards; alignment to industry/employability requirements; etc.)
- KU8. policies and procedures relevant to the learning environment.
- KU9. training needs in the skilling ecosystem
- KU10. mode of training, vis-a-vis on-line, hybrid or blended and on-site
- KU11. synchronous and asynchronous training tools

Generic Skills (GS)

User/individual on the job needs to know how to:

- GS1. write messages, notes and short descriptive text with reasonable accuracy
- GS2. read and extract relevant information from documentation including purpose, nature of document, etc.
- GS3. communicate effectively with co-workers and clients
- GS4. use effective listening and probing/questioning skills
- GS5. plan ones day to day tasks to achieve optimum productivity
- GS6. manage distractions
- GS7. be patient and courteous under all circumstances and situations
- GS8. apply problem solving skills that require negotiation to resolve problems of a difficult nature
- GS9. breakdown relevant work process into its constituent activities for ease of analysis
- GS10. seek clarification on problems and its solution from others
- GS11. improve work process
- GS12. spot potential disruptions and delays and what can be done to prevent the same as well as handle the same if it occurs

MEP/N2606: Plan and facilitate trainer development

Description

This unit refers to cumulative skills and knowledge required to plan and facilitate trainer development

Scope

The scope covers the following :

- Plan and organise trainer development program
- Deliver and facilitate training sessions
- Support and monitor learning
- Undertake post - training activities

Elements and Performance Criteria

Plan and organise trainer development program

To be competent, the user/individual on the job must be able to:

- PC1. identify training needs of the trainers and skill gap
- PC2. identify various methods that are best suited for the training needs
- PC3. determine required learning and development resources and existing constraints
- PC4. select the methods best suited for the training needs that can be applied within the available resources and constraints
- PC5. prepare a design document and schedule that fits in the trainer schedule without disrupting work
- PC6. use existing training materials and modify them as required
- PC7. share the training plan and schedule with all stakeholders
- PC8. prepare and implement a monitoring plan to ensure all trainers undergo the development plan

Deliver and facilitate training sessions

To be competent, the user/individual on the job must be able to:

- PC9. deliver training in on-line, on-site and hybrid modes effectively
- PC10. conduct training as per the training calendar or schedule given by authorized source (Authorised source: Training organisation, Sector Skill Council, etc.)
- PC11. confirm availability to the organisers for the training session
- PC12. study profile of candidates coming for training to identify special training requirements if any (Special training requirements: language adjustment; seating arrangement; learners with special needs; timings of trainer)
- PC13. deliver training as per session plan, occupational standards and training materials provided by authorised source
- PC14. use various facilitation techniques in the training program as per the program design provided
- PC15. choose appropriate tools for participant involvement and a mix of methods in on-line and on-site trainings

Qualification Pack

Support and monitor learning

To be competent, the user/individual on the job must be able to:

- PC16. use feedback and mentoring for trainer development
- PC17. conduct formative assessment of learning by using appropriate methods such as mock-training, on-the-job observation, studying video recordings of trainers, etc
- PC18. monitor and document learner progress to ensure outcomes are being achieved, and individual learner needs are being met
- PC19. modify the delivery sessions to reflect specific needs and circumstances that emerged during monitoring
- PC20. provide additional assistance to individual trainers as required to achieve session outcomes
- PC21. maintain and store learner records according to organisational requirements

Undertake post-training activities

To be competent, the user/individual on the job must be able to:

- PC22. monitor the cleanliness and tidiness of the training room
- PC23. notify any special housekeeping requirements, maintenance requirements or training equipment repair requirements to appropriate personnel
- PC24. secure equipment and tools in safe places in accordance with procedures
- PC25. ensure that training equipment and tools are used and left in good condition
- PC26. complete learner records accurately and submit or process and in the required timeframes

The individual on the job needs to know and understand:

- KU1. Training Organisations system policies and procedures such as: a. candidate selectionb. rationale and purpose of competency-based assessmentc. costs/resourcing
- KU2. organizational record-management systems and reporting requirements
- KU3. procedures for the recording, reporting and maintenance of workplace equipment
- KU4. various methods of trainer development (e.g.: Training from Industry SMEs; self-learning modules; Train the trainer program; on-the-job observation and feedback; etc.)
- KU5. Basic facilitation techniques: active listening, questioning, brainstorming, setting ground rules, encouraging participation, use existing knowledge in the group effectively
- KU6. Training processes: connecting to previous learning, delivering information in a step by step fashion, explanation with examples, two-way interaction, step by step demonstration, guided learner practice and recap/consolidation to optimise learner experiences
- KU7. resources and constraints for selection of training method (e.g.: Budgets; trainer schedule-time availability; availability of SMEs; availability of trainer self-development e-learning modules; etc.)
- KU8. trainer competencies and occupational standards
- KU9. main stages of the training cycle in virtual (e-learning, app-based, & blended) and on-site classes
- KU10. synchronous and asynchronous tools for online-training
- KU11. methods of giving feedback and mentoring during on-line and classroom training

MEP/N2607: Conduct trainings that require advanced facilitation skills.

Description

This unit lists the outcomes, performance criteria, knowledge, understanding and skills required for planning for conducting trainings that require advanced facilitation skills.

Scope

The scope covers the following :

- Facilitate learning sessions using advanced facilitations skills
- Monitor learning and retention by using advanced facilitation techniques

Facilitate learning sessions using advanced facilitations skills

To be competent, the user/individual on the job must be able to:

- PC1. examine learning expectations and possible learning barriers and support required to address them
- PC2. use a variety of facilitation techniques, approaches and activities to promote individual participation, group interaction, and the opportunity to practice and to meet learner needs and learning outcomes
- PC3. observe learner cues and feedback and review and revise own facilitation skills to maintain learning momentum
- PC4. integrate activities to develop meta-cognition skills and generic skills into facilitation and learning practices
- PC5. manage groups in a manner that maximises the strengths of group learning while recognising the needs and requirements of individual members
- PC6. modify (if necessary) facilitation of the session as contingencies arise in the learning situation, resource availability, learner needs, and time constraints
- PC7. create opportunities to monitor learner's progress against the agreed outcomes

Monitor learning and retention by using advanced facilitation techniques

To be competent, the user/individual on the job must be able to:

- PC8. carry out debriefing of learning activities by asking participants to share their reactions and experience, asking appropriate questions and helping participants process and interpret their experiences.
- PC9. enable learners to complete individual and group learning activities including case studies, games, simulations etc.
- PC10. assist participants to identify key learning points that emerge from learning activities
- PC11. provide feedback to participants, reinforce correct responses, correct incorrect and unclear concepts and responses.
- PC12. facilitate participants to identify application of their learning at the workplace

Qualification Pack

- PC13. generate active participant involvement by using various strategies (Strategies: Using a variety of training methods that appeal to different learning styles and attention span; Acknowledging and building on trainees previous experience knowledge and skills; Building collaborative learning experience through sharing control over learning situations with trainees)
- PC14. maintain and share records and evidences as per organizational procedures

The individual on the job needs to know and understand:

- KU1. training Organisations system policies and procedures such as:a. candidate selectionb. rationale and purpose of competency-based assessmentc. costs/resourcing
- KU2. organizational record-management systems and reporting requirements
- KU3. work area overview of procedures and practices in line with required standards
- KU4. the main branches of learning theory (such as:a). behavioural learning theory; cognitive learning theory; experiential learning theory, b). information processing theory, c). andragogy, d). vocational education and training pedagogy; and e). current research on learning as it relates to training in an adult environment)
- KU5. different delivery modes and facilitation techniques and their appropriateness for different learners and learning situations
- KU6. methodologies for facilitating learning (such as:a). learner-centred/teacher-centred, b). learner-directed/teacher-guided, c). case study/scenario/problem-based, d). experiential, e). information processing, f.) behaviourist, g). self-discovery mode
- KU7. a range of facilitation approaches and activities (a). enable learners to draw from and share their own experiences and work out and apply concepts for themselves;b). contribute to the development of concepts through participation and provides opportunities to practice and consolidate learning; c). promote the achievement of agreed learning outcomes by individuals while maintaining an emphasis on the manner and quality of the learning experience)
- KU8. a range of delivery methods, (such as:a). interactive/participative/collaborative; b). demonstration; c). instruction, d). questioning, e). group-discussions; f). presentations; g). guided facilitation; h). learning-activity-based; i). guided work-based activities/applications/experiences; j). role-play/mocks/simulations; k). project-based; l). tutoring; m). individual facilitation techniques - coaching/mentoring; n). blended delivery methods)
- KU9. a range of inclusive practices (such as:a). demonstrating probity in all areas of responsibility, b). modelling organisational/professional codes of conduct; c). reinforcing ethical conduct in interactions with and between other people; d). showing respect and sensitivity for individual diversity, e). recognising and utilising difference to develop both the individual; f). fostering a culture of inclusiveness)
- KU10. the range of potential barriers to learning (such as:a). physical or intellectual disabilities; b). linguistic or cultural differences; c). language or communication issues, d). age; e). employment status; f). prior experience in an adult learning environment; g). poor educational experience; h). health issues; i). issues arising from gender; j). psychiatric disabilities or mental health issues; k). learning problems; l). literacy and numeracy needs; m). location; n). access to resources)

Qualification Pack

- KU11. strategies, techniques and activities for using the kinds of support materials and/or equipment appropriate to facilitation methodologies
- KU12. methods for evaluating learning and facilitation
- KU13. psychology of group dynamics.

Generic Skills (GS)

User/individual on the job needs to know how to:

- GS1. write messages, notes and short descriptive text with reasonable accuracy
- GS2. read and extract relevant information from documentation including purpose, nature of document, etc.
- GS3. communicate effectively with co-workers and clients
- GS4. use effective listening and probing/questioning skills
- GS5. plan ones day to day tasks to achieve optimum productivity
