THC/Q0310: Restaurant Service (WorldSkills)

Brief Job Description

The restaurant service practitioner provides high quality food and drink service to guests. A food service practitioner generally works in the commercial sector offering a range of services to customers. There is a direct relationship between the nature and quality of the service required and the payment made by the guest. Therefore the practitioner has a continuing responsibility to work professionally and interactively with the guest in order to give satisfaction and thus maintain and grow the business. The waiter is the most important person in dealing with guests and creating the right atmosphere in restaurant. It is therefore necessary to have a complete command of serving rules and to know the preparation of special dishes and drinks at the guests table or in the bar. Basic requirements are skill and resourcefulness, good manners, good interaction with guests and practical ability.

Personal Attributes

The job requires the individual to be hospitable, patient, polite, and service-oriented with great interpersonal and communication skills.

Assessment Guidelines and Assessment Weightage

Assessment Guidelines

Judgement uses a scale of 0-3. To apply the scale with rigour and consistency, judgement must be conducted using: benchmarks (criteria) for detailed guidance for each Aspect (in words, images, artefacts or separate guidance notes)

the 0-3 scale to indicate:

0: performance below industry standard

1: performance meets industry standard

2: performance meets and, in specific respects, exceeds industry standard

3: performance wholly exceeds industry standard and is judged as excellent

Three Experts will judge each Aspect, normally simultaneously, and record their scores. A fourth Expert coordinates and supervises the scoring, and checks their validity. They also act as a judge when required to prevent compatriot marking.

Qualification Pack

Minimum Aggregate Passing % at QP Level : 70

(Please note: Every Trainee should score a minimum aggregate passing percentage as specified above, to successfully clear the Qualification Pack assessment.)
